

MCBW'S 2010 Teen Leadership Summit

"The Power of Media Messaging and How Leaders fight back"

Hosted at the Mall of America®

MCBW will host the 2010 Teen Leadership Summit on Saturday March 20, 2010 at the Mall of America. MCBW is excited to host the event at the Mall of America, one of the nation's most exciting attractions, and a place that our youth are sure to enjoy spending the day. We believe that the mall will provide a great discussion starter on media messaging and how that messaging shapes and molds our ideas about gender, identity and violence, some of the priority focus topics for this year's Summit.

The Summit Activities will include:

Leadership Building Activities

Youth will have an opportunity to challenge themselves and have some fun on the Ropes Course at Camp Nickelodeon.

Words from Miss Teen New Prague

Katie Kveene is a teen pageant contestant running for Miss Teen Minnesota on a teen dating violence prevention platform and she is a survivor of teen dating violence.

Lunch on the Mall

Youth will be provided gift cards to eat at the MOA food court

Key note on Media Messaging

Coach Nakumbe, an inspirational speaker and author on youth empowerment and media messaging.

Media Scavenger hunt

The youth will team up and spend time in the Mall of America finding media images that shape our views about gender, identity and violence with disposables cameras.

This years Teen Leadership Summit will be action packed and a great learning opportunity for our youth. Registration material is available and we look forward to seeing you and the youth you work with at the event.
